

background image

The diagram consists of a large, light gray rectangle that serves as a background. Centered within this rectangle is a smaller, darker gray rectangle. The text "background image" is positioned above the inner rectangle, centered horizontally.

